Pusan National University

This is to appreciate the service of Prof. Hong as an Associate Editor of Automatica. Automatica is the most prestigious journal of the International Federation of Automatic Control. In order to keep the journal at a very high standard, it is essential that Associate Editors make their fair recommendation within the assigned period. Prof. Hong has served as an Associate Editor of the team for Control System Applications and performed his task with very high accuracy for the last four and half years. I highly appreciate his good job and expect that he will be able to continue this service in future, too.
